Thereafter, the Rudraksha thus becomes divine, and creates a layer of divine armour around its worshipper and bestows prosperity. Further, if possible kindly donate anything as per your desire to a needy person.

If you would like to enhance the effects of the different Rudraksha then the specific mantras for each of the Rudraksha could be repeated as often as you choose at any time of the day & wherever comfortable to you. In case you do not wish or forget to chant the specific mantra, "Om Namah Shivaya" mantra energizes the Rudraksha when chanted with them. Keep the Rudrakshas close to your body. Rudraksha can also be kept in Pooja altar and prayed for benefit of whole family. If possible donate some food or any other form of help to the needy as per your desire after wearing the Rudraksha.

Procedure 2: In case you do not wish to perform Rudra Abhishek on your own & would like a priest to do it for you then kindly follow the below procedure

Kindly visit any Lord Shiva temple on a Monday or any auspicious day, offer the priest whatever dakshina (donation) you wish to offer & request him to perform the Rudra Abhishek for you. He shall ask for your name, then shall start energizing the Rudraksha by offering milk, water, flowers, incense (kindly carry the required pooja items with you) & bless it with mantras in your name. With the completion of this procedure the blessings & permission of lord Shiva has been taken, kindly take the Rudrakshas in your hand, thank the lord for giving you the opportunity to wear a Rudraksha, show it to lord Sun, offer prayers for your well being, chant the mantra "Om Namaha Shivaye" 9 times & where it. If possible donate some food or any other form of help to the needy as per your desire.

Kindly note: there are many people in the world who could afford to wear the most expensive Rudrakshas but since they are not lucky enough they do not even know about Rudrakshas, here we are simply trying to say that one just cannot wear Rudrakshas by their own will and desire one really needs to be extremely blessed & for the same you need to thank God.
