Trying an Astro Gemstone before wearing it

Wearing an Astro gemstone is has usually been a process of fear & hope for most of the people. People usually think that there may be a negative effect associated with the same & for which they usually want to try the desired gemstone before wearing it permanently. This is nothing but a psychological process. No gemstone starts giving effects before they are energized & worn with right methodology. Gemstones have an aura which merges with wearer’s aura & creates either a peaceful or restless environment during the trial period that’s it. However people tend to associate the good or bad occurrences during the trial period with the gemstone; this is nothing but co incidence.

Trying a gemstone before wearing it will only give peace or restlessness & nothing else; this might help you to decide if the gemstone suits you or no. Sometimes what also happens is that the wearing a new gemstone means wearing something extra on you which wasn’t a part of you before, so obviously there will be some kind of change & time would be required to adjust to it. It wouldn’t mean that it is not suiting you. So be a little patient & mentally don’t start relating every bit to it.

Further most of the astrologers are doing nothing but playing with faith, I have come across several of them who do not have a piece of sense but are guiding various people & people tend to follow them as well. Many people come to us to buy gemstones recommended by other astrologers & they do not know for what purpose they have been recommended for. The other common question clients tend to ask is which gemstone will suit me, this question doesn’t make sense; the question should be what gemstone will suit me for this particular reason, the purpose to wear should be important. There are 12 different planets which are controlling different areas of your life; unless you mention the purpose & requirement one cannot look into which stone for the specific reason is going to suit you. Im sayin this only because you should know what to expect from it.

So bottom line is follow the guidance of a reputed gem therapist & wear fine quality stones without any superstitions & you certainly should be doing fine. Break the shackles of blind faith & superstitions.
